Hi my name is Brett and I would like to tell you about my tour to Tjapukai's Night Fire Dinner and Show.

I'll pick you up from 6pm (exact pick up time given on booking) we will have a leisurely trip down the highway chatting and getting to know each other and will arrive in time for:

WELCOME DRINK & CANAPES: set in the Rainforest Canopy Breezeway we will sip complimentary sparkling wine and taste canapés inspired by bush tucker foods.

DIDGERIDOO JOURNEY: Have your face painted by the Bama Indigenous rainforest people to link you to their traditional land, then take you on a mesmerising journey with the haunting sounds of the didgeridoo.

SACRED CORROBOREE: Follow the Tjapukai warriors along a firelit path to a rainforest dance theatre where a sacred corroboree celebrating Aboriginal Dreamtime stories will inspire you to join in.

LAKESIDE FIRE CEREMONY: Become part of the Rainbow Serpent circle to learn traditional language songs and make music with Aboriginal sticks before the ceremonial fire is lit with a spectacular fire ball shooting towards the stars.

TROPICAL DINING: Enjoy Australian meats including Kangaroo and crocodile. Local seafood and an array of salads and desserts featuring tantalising Indigenous flavours at the Flame Tree Bar & Grill buffet where chef whips up fresh dishes from an open flame grill.

FIRESIDE FAREWELL: End an evening of cultural celebrations with the Tjapukai warriors beside the campfire where there is time for an intimate chat and photo opportunities.
